Guidelines:

Respect the business- Paul is able to support us so generously because of his business; please do not disturb paying guests.

Respect the staff and volunteers- They are volunteering their time, energy, and resources to give you an outstanding experience; show them your appreciation.

No guarantees- these are outdoor events and will be weather dependent

Tip Salmon first mates- they live off their tips, we appreciate them and the boat Captains can't do it without them

Tip staff including bartenders, waitresses, and maids- this is their job, be respectful.

Show up for your event- this event is limited and you were chosen, so please make the most of your time with us
